

What are The Gardens' hours of operations?

The Hudson Gardens and Event Center is open year-round. Admission is charged March through October; you may choose your own admission price from November through February.

Do I need to show my cards every time I come to The Hudson Gardens & Event Center?

Yes. Please help us maintain an accurate attendance count by coming by the Gift Shop to let us know you have stopped by.

What portion of my membership fee is tax deductible?

The Hudson Gardens & Event Center is a 501(c)(3), not-for-profit corporation and your contribution may be tax deductible. Please consult with your tax accountant regarding the application of this deductible expense.

What is the difference between Day Passes and the Annual Guest Card?

Day Passes are good for one admission each to visit The Gardens. The Annual Guest Card can be used as many times as you like during your membership year. Simply give it to whomever you like. Day Passes and Annual Guest Cards are not valid for concert or special event admissions.

At what age do my children need membership cards?

Children between the ages of 3 and 18 can be admitted using a kid card. Children 2 and under are free. A kid card can admit up to four children at a time.

How do reciprocal free admissions work?

The American Horticulture Society distributes a list each year that shows participating gardens and arboreta. This list can be found on their website at www.ahs.org. Please check with individual gardens to determine their reciprocal benefits.
